Plus Program: The Plus Program focuses on developing gross motor skills & fine motor skills through games, sports and craft activities while teaching cooperation, sportsmanship, respect and teamwork. Activities include circle time, exercise activities, snack, a variety of skill-building sport & game activities, crafts and story time. Also, included in our "Treasure Hunt Tuesday" schedule are activities such as outdoor play, parachute play, balloon activities, basketball & bingo. The Plus Program classes meet twice a week on Tuesday & Thursday mornings. There are six 5-week sessions. Parents can sign their child up for as many or as few sessions as fits their schedule. Lunch Club is included with each Plus Program class.

Creative Arts Plus: The Creative Arts Plus Program engages the children in the world of music, art, movement, drama and literature. In addition, children enjoy a "Plus"-style component designed to boost large muscle development through a mix of exercises and skill-building games. The Creative Arts Plus program meets once a week, either on Wednesday morning or Wednesday afternoon. There are six 5-week sessions. Each session revolves around a separate theme. The teachers continually revise the program so that the children explore new ideas every year. Using musical instruments, puppets, songs, poetry and artwork, children explore the arts while having fun with friends. A variety of materials, from beanbags and balls to a parachute and hoops support the "Plus" component. Parents can sign their child up for any or all of the sessions. Lunch Club is included with each Creative Arts Plus class.

Lunch Club: Lunch Club is a program which meets Tuesday through Thursday from 11:15am to 12 noon. Your child brings a lunch from home and, for $7.00, your child can spend time at school, eating lunch, hearing a story and playing with friends. To participate in Lunch Club, parents can sign up their child any day before school.
